

Dr. Satyakam Mohapatra is senior Psychiatrist from Cuttack associated with the diagnosis, treatment and prevention of neuro-psychiatric disorders. Dr. Mohapatra successfully finalized MD (Psychiatry) from King George's Medical University, Lucknow in 2012 . He is currently working as Assistant professor at the Mental Health Institute, Department of Psychiatry, SCB Medical College Cuttack, Odisha.

Dr. Mohapatra has a significant publication background. He has several international indexed publications, national indexed publications and abstracts to his credit with a many of his articles cited by other authors in different journals. He enjoys the distinction of being an Editorial Board member in three international journals and has carried out peer review in five different journals.

Dr. Mohapatra fulfils his quest for knowledge and continued need for professional development through participation in several psychiatry conferences, workshops and CME programs conducted at international and national centres. He also shares his knowledge in these conferences by way of paper presentations. He seeks to educate masses on mental health issues in order to raise awareness levels amongst them. He achieves this objective using the medium of articles furnished in leading newspapers and expressing his views in talk shows aired on RM radio stations , All India Radio station. He has done many TV awareness programmes.